Tiger Lou a.k.a. Rasmus Kellermann from Oxelösund/ Sweden is 24 years old and likes dogs and movies.

1990, when he is 10, his family moves to Nyköping. In 1991 he forms his first band after his father gave him a guitar and taught him a few chords. This is the first chapter of his musical history. Rasmus moves to London in 2000 and falls in love. While he works as bust boy, juice mixer and receptionist Tiger Lou is born in 2001. The first 7" EP is released.

2002, after he married his girlfriend and moved to Stockholm, "The Tiger" records a demo under the name Araki which was released on CD and this year finally on vinyl.

But back to Tiger Lou. Another 7" EP and the "Troubles & Desires" CDEP are released in 2003. Grammy nominated director Magnus Renfors makes a video for the track "Sam, As In Samantha" and MTV Nordic puts it immediately on rotation. "The Tiger" plays many shows, solo and with his band, he is/ they are touring the U.S.

and Germany. By the end of the year Rasmus writes the music and the lyrics for "Is My Head Still On?" and records it nearly on his own.

The album was released as CD in Scandinavia, Germany, Austria, Switzerland and Australia in 2004 by STARTRACKS/ V2.

Tiger Lou are touring Scandinavia and Germany several times to promote the latest output. After that Magnus Renfors makes another video for the track "Oh Horatio" which becomes MTV Nordic's "Pick Of The Week" and is put on highest rotation "Fresh".

Riptide Recordings is proud to present "Is My Head Still On?" on vinyl. 10 songs of straight and classic guitar pop, very smart and pure for such a young guy. For fans of Jeff Buckley, Josh Rouse, Red House Painters, Gin Blossoms, Nada Surf.
